INDEX TO VOLUME IX

A

Abolition societies, stimulus given to, 25
Absentee Ownership of Slaves in the United States in 1830, 196–231
Adams, E. J., a minister, 347
Addams, Jane, 110
Adjustment, economic, in South Carolina after the Civil War, 294–310
African M. E. Conference, address of the Director before, 581
African Methodist Episcopal Church in South Carolina, 346, 350, 353–355
African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church in South Carolina, 355
African slave trade, 1–17
African Questions at the Paris Peace Conference by G. L. Beer, reviewed, 86–89
Agricultural measures, 421–422
Aiken, Negro Schools in, 334–335
Alexander, Dr. Sadie Mossell, 375
Alexander, Raymond P., interest of, 375
Allen Macon, B., a candidate, 463
Allen University, origin of, 332–333, 334
Alpine region of South Carolina, the Negroes in, 305
Alva, effects of massacres of, 4
Alvord, J. W., inspection of schools, by, 329
American Missionary Association, educational efforts of, 327, 335
American Missionary Society, 325
Ames, Oakes, 544
An Anthology of Verse by American Negroes, review of, 371–374
Anderson, Matthew, hospitality of, 375
Anderson, R. B., a legislator, 555; a delegate to the South Carolina Constitutional Convention of 1895, 558–563
Andrews, Sidney, quotation from, 269
Andrews, T. C., charged with corruption, 478
Annual Meeting of the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History, Proceedings of, 101–106
Antisdel, Dr. C. B., address of, 102
Appropriations by the legislature of South Carolina, 440–441
Archer, S. H., at annual meeting, 103
Archives of Canada, sources in, 26
Armstrong, Hannibal, How I hid a Union Spy by, 34–40
Armstrong, James, master of Hannibal Armstrong, 34
Atlanta University, meeting at, 101–102
Attucks, Crispus, a runaway, 18
Avery, Charles, a philanthropist, 327–328
Avery Normal School, 327–328, 329

B

Bagnall, Robert W., a worker for the rights of Negroes, 115, 116
Baker Theological Institute, origin of, 352
Baldwin, Roger N., 121
Baldwin, William H., 117
Baldwin, Mrs. William H., Jr., 118, 119, 120, 121, 124
Bamfield, comment on, 412
Banks of South Carolina, 320–321

Baptists among the Negroes in South Carolina, 356–360
Barber, J. Max, an editor, 108
Barnes, Dr. A. C., interest of, in the Negro, 375
Barnett, Ida Wells, an agitator, 108, 111
Bates, James H., a teacher, 329
Baxter, J. A., a member of the Carolina legislature, 551–552
Beaufort, South Carolina, progressive Negroes in, 308
Becker, Charles E., a teacher, 331
Beckett, W. W., employment of, as a Federal official, 557
Beer, G. L., African Questions at the Paris Peace Conference by, reviewed, 86–89
Belknap, a cabinet officer, 545
Bell, J. D., attitude of, toward public debt, 399
Benedict, Mrs. Bethsheba, benefaction of, 331
Benedict Institute, origin of, 330–332
Benners, Alfred H., Slavery and Its Results by, reviewed, 92–93
Bentley, Dr. Charles E., 112
Bethune, Mary McLeod, address of, 105
Bettis Academy, origin of, 336
Bettis, Alexander, a minister, 336
"Big Bonanza," 433
Black code of South Carolina, 280–294
Blascoer, Frances, a worker for the rights of Negroes, 113–114
Blue Ridge Railroad, 424–425, 426, 427, 532
Bolivar, George, testimony of, 533
Bosemon, Dr., comment on, 411
"Boston Massacre," 18
Botume, Elizabeth Hyde, work of, 324
Bowen, Anthony, an early social worker, 127
Bowen, C. C., ideas of, as to relief, 386; about land, 390; opposition of, to Chamberlain's reforms, 486–487
Bowen, Dr. J. W. E., at annual meeting, 102; address of, 105
Boyd, Captain, 35, 36, 38
Brainerd, Cephus, gift of books by, 129
Brainerd Institute, origin of, 334, 349
Brawley, E. M., a minister, 359
Breck, E. P., opinion of, as to Negro morals, 363
Breckinridge, S. P., 120
Brewer Normal and Industrial School, 335–336
Britain and the slave trade, 1–17
Brockenton, I. P., a minister, 358
Brooks, William H., a minister, 120
Brown, Henry E., a social worker, 133, 134
Brown, Dr. Thomas I., remarks of, 378
Brownsville troops, the case of, 108–109
Bruce, John Edward, the death of, 578
Bruce, a Negro servant, 27–28
Buckner, Geo. W., a social worker, 120
Bulkley, Dr. William L., 111; cooperation of, with the Urban League, 120
Burre, John A., a teacher, 338
Burroughs, Nannie H., address of, 380
Bursting Bonds, review of, 236–237
Butler, J. C., a minister, 358
Butler, General M. C., reform candidate for lieutenant governor of South Carolina, 451; admission of mistakes by, 453; charge against as instigator of Hamburg riot, 492–494; activities in campaign of, 1876, 495, 499
Byrd, Jonas, a Negro reform advocate, 451–452

C

Cabot, Sebastian, voyage of, 3–4
Cain, R. H., a minister in South Carolina, 354; ideas of, as to relief, 386; about land, 390; ability of, conceded, 413; a Congressman, 413; opposition of, to Sinking Fund, 430; corruption opposed by, 450, 464-465; a reformer within the ranks, 461-462, 467

Cainhoy riot, 499
Call, the, to the rescue of the Negro, 109-110
Camden, Schools of, 333, 337
Campaign of 1876, the, character of, 500-507; as reported by a native of South Carolina, 499-500
Campbell, Sir George, quotation from, 311; opinion of, as to Negro Congressmen, 414
Canaries and the slave trade, 6, 7, 8
Cape Verde Islands, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 12
Capers, Bishop William, missionary endeavors of, 346
Cardoza, F. L., an educator, 327, 338, 343, 347; ideas of, as to relief, 386; as to education, 392, 394; suffrage, 395, 398; public debt, 399; ability of, conceded, 412-413; Secretary of State, 413; State Treasurer, 462; the attack on, as State Treasurer, 478-479; declared innocent, 479; fraud charged to, 526-527
Carolina National Bank, 473
Carolinas, Negro fugitives from, to Florida, 144-195
Carpenter, L. Cass, frauds of, 526
Carpenter, R. B., reform candidate for Governor of South Carolina, 451
Carter, Bishop R. A., Feeding among the Lilies by, reviewed, 89-90
Catholics drive Protestants to seafaring, 4
Cavender, Thomas S., removal of, from office, 484
Census, records of, with respect to Negroes, 41-43
Ceruti, E. Burton, 112
Chamberlain, D. H., ideas of, about land, 390; a candidate, 466; election of, 468; reforms under, 470-488; suspicion of, 472; vetoes of, 433, 473, 474, 489; pardoning power wisely used by, 486; popularity of, 487-488; various opinions on, 488; in the campaign of 1876, 491, 496, 497; attacked by R. B. Elliot, 497-498; disputed election of, 507; action of Supreme Court on, 508-509; final ousting of, 516-517; frauds charged to, 526, 531, 534, 536-537, 538
Chapelle, Bishop W. D., an educator and minister, 333, 335
Charles V, policy of, with respect to slaves, 3, 5
Charleston, South Carolina, Y. M. C. A. work among Negroes in, 128-129; memorial of the Freedmen of, 282-283; progressive Negroes in, 307-308; Schools of, 325-329
Cheney, E. D., report of, 323
Chicago, the Urban League in, 122
Chinese labor sought, 298
Christie, Col. G., the Negro servant of, 27-28
Civil Rights Bill, 418
Claflin, Lee, interest in Claflin College, 333
Claflin College, origin of, 333
Clark, John T., a social worker, 170
Clement, Bishop G. C., address of, 377-378
Clement, Bishop, 308
Cleveland, the Urban League in, 122
Clinton, I. C., a minister, 335
Clinton, Bishop J. J., 355
Cobb, James A., interest of, in the rights of the Negro, 114
Colby, Lewis, a teacher, 331
Colfax, Schuyler, 544
Colored Methodists in South Carolina, 356-357
Columbia, South Carolina, Y. M. C. A. work among Negroes in, 129; progressive Negroes in 308; Negro Schools of, 329-330; exciting times at, in 1876, 508-516
Conditions in South Carolina just after the Civil War, 259-279
Confusion in South Carolina, 260-279

Congregationalists in South Carolina, 347–348
Congressional reconstruction, 291–294
Connecticut, fugitive servant regulations in, 19
Conners, James, 495
Conners, William R., a social worker, 120
Consolidation Act, 472, 478
Constitution League, 108
Constitution of 1868, described, 401–404
Constitutional Convention of South Carolina in 1895, Negroes in, 558–569
Continental Congress, fugitive slave question in, 20–22
Convention of 1868, 381–409
Conviction of reconstructionists, 540–541
Cooper, Augustus, 308
Corbin, David T., a candidate, 550
Corruption exposed to justify intimidation, 517–546; the end of, 568
Courier, The, opposition of, to South Carolina Constitution of 1868, 406–407
Cox, T. C., a teacher, 338
Cravath, Paul D., 120
Credit Mobilier, 544
Crews, Joe, Lieutenant Colonel of the Militia, 446
Crisis, The, founded, 112
Crocker, report of, 323
Crockett, N. A., a minister, 355
Cromwell, John W., a leader, 108
Crops of South Carolina, 316, 317, 318, 319
Cuba, 2
Customs of Negroes in South Carolina, 247–249

D

Da Costa, H. B., a teacher, 338
Dancy, John C., Jr., a social worker, 120
Darlington, Negroes killed in, 499
David, C. W. A., The Fugitive Slave Law of 1793 and its Antecedents by, 18–25
Davis, Prof. E. P., Meine Erinnerungen aus Ostafrika, 365–367, and Vom Kulturreich des Festlandes, 570–571, reviewed by Davis, Harry E., 112
Davis, T. R., address of, 104
Debt of South Carolina provided for, 473–474; reduction of, 474–478
Defectives among the Negroes of South Carolina, 255–258
De Heredia, Alonso Fernandez, letter of, to Fray Dr. Julian de Arriaga, 193
Delaney, Martin R., opinion of, 465–466; a candidate, 466, 467; testimony of, 533
DeLarge, R. C., relief measures of, 386, 387; on education, 391, 394; on suffrage, 396–397, 398, 399; on public debt, 399; preferred over whites for congress, 415; ability of, 410; land commissioner, 415
Delegates, list of, elected to the convention of 1868, 383–384
Delinquents among the Negroes of South Carolina, 255–258
De Montiano, D. Manuel, Governor, letter of, with respect to Negro Fugitives to Spanish colonies, 173–182
De Nauarrete, De Melchor, letter of, 183–186
Denmark Vesey Insurrection, its effects, 346
Dennis, John B., connection of, with fraud, 538
De Pass, Captain, 495
Dependents among the Negroes of South Carolina, 253–258
De Solis, D. Fulgencio Garcia, letters of, 187–192
Despatches of Spanish Officials bearing on the Free Negro Settlement of Gracia Real de Santa Teresa de Mose, Florida, 150–195
Detroit, the Urban League in, 122

Devereux, J., Plantation book of, 139
Dewey, John, interest of, in Negroes, 111
Dickerson, Bishop W. F., founder of Allen University, 332, 354
Dill, George, the murder of, 447
Dill, S. G. W., ideas of, as to disabilities of certain voters, 399
Dillard, James H., 121
Disorders in South Carolina, 447–448, 454–459
Distribution of Negro population in South Carolina, 245–247
Dodge, Timothy, a teacher, 331
DuBois, W. E. B., the promoter of the Niagara Movement, 108; connections of, with the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, 111, 112; Gift of Black Folk, The, by, 572–573
Duncan, B. O., relief measure proposed by, 385–386; views of, on education, 391; opposition of, to coeducation of the races, 393; on public debt, 400
Duncan, General, 35
Dunn, T. C., election of, 538–539
Durham, J. J., a minister, 359
Durham, Plato T., address of, 105–106
Dutch and fugitive slaves, 19–20
Drake, Sir Francis, trading of, 14–15
Dress of Negroes in South Carolina, 248–249

E

Eagan, John J., philanthropy of, 378
Eato, E. V. C., an early social worker, 127
Eckenrode, H. J., Jefferson Davis, President of the South by, reviewed, 367–369
Economic Adjustment in South Carolina after the Civil War, 294–310
Edgefield, Negroes killed in, 499
Edmonston, Joseph, an advocate of reform, 452
Education at public expense provided by reconstructionists, 338–345; efforts for, in South Carolina, 419–420
Educational forces at work in South Carolina, 322–345
Edward VI, state of trade under, 4
Eight box election law, 549
Election frauds, 509–507; those of whites, admitted by Tillman, 561–562
Elimination of reconstructionists from office by illegal measures, 517–520
Elizabeth, Queen, slave trade under, 1–17
Elizabethan Seamen and the African Slave Trade, 1–17
Ellenton riot, 499
Elliott, R. B., ideas of, as to relief, 388; as to poll tax, 392–393; thought on suffrage, 396; ability of, conceded, 410–411, 415; opinion of, 433; opposition of, to Chamberlain's reforms, 486–487; opposition of, to D. H. Chamberlain's renomination, 397; frauds charged to, 531–532; employment of, as a Federal official, 557
El Mina, construction of, 2
Episcopalians among the Negroes of South Carolina, 349–350
Evans, William L., a social worker, 120
Everlasting Stain, The, by Kelly Miller, review of, 573–574
Exports of South Carolina, 315, 319–320
Ezekiel, Philip E., a candidate, 463

F

Fairfield Normal Institute, 335–349
Farrand, Professor Livingston, 111
Fear of the freemen in South Carolina, 264, 265, 266, 281–282
Federal troops in South Carolina, 457, 458, 504
Feeding among the Lilies by Bishop R. A. Carter, reviewed, 89–90
Feeding Slaves, 139–143
Fields, Thomas R., a legislator, 553

Finances of South Carolina, the regulation, 428–441
Financial Board investigated, 521–522
Financial measures to improve the situation in South Carolina, 432–433
Financial Settlement Act, 532
Fisheries of South Carolina, 320
Florida, trade to, 13; early Negro refugees in, settled at Mose, 144–195; the migration of Negroes to, 278
Folklore prize, offer of, 240–241
Food of Negroes in South Carolina, 248
Ford, John T., punishment of, 418
Ford, W., an advocate of reform, 452
Forten, Charlotte S., a teacher, 337
Frances I, struggle of, for trade territory, 5–6
Frauds, investigation of, in South Carolina, 520–546; largely the crime of whites, 560–562, 567; exaggerated, 540–545, 597
Fraudulent debt, 520–523
Frazier, E. Franklin, address of, 103
Freedmen's Aid Commission organized in Philadelphia, 322; in New York, 322
Freedmen's Aid Society, 351, 352
Freedmen's Bureau, the operations of, in South Carolina, 267; Schools of, 325, 330
Freedmen's Union Commission, 323
Freeman, Elizabeth, 113
Freeman, a teacher, 337
Free Negro Owners of Slaves in the United States in 1830, 41–85
Frobenius, Leo, Vom Kulturreich des Festlandes by, reviewed, 570–571
Fugitive Slave Law of 1793 and its Antecedents, The, 18–25
Fugitive slaves among Indians, 20; in the colonies, 19–25
Fuller, Dr. Richard, opinion of, 269, 273
Furniture fraud, 524
Further Notes on Slavery in Canada, 26–33

G

Gary, M. W., activity of, in campaign of 1876, 495–499
Gibbs, Jonathan C., an educator, 329
Gift of Black Folk by W. E. B. DuBois, review of, 572–573
Gilbert, M. W., a minister, 358
Glascoe, Johnson, the murder of, 445
Gleaves, Richard H., lieutenant governor of South Carolina, 462; a candidate, 466
Gonsalvez, a Portugese sailor, 2
Goodwill Parochial School, 334
Goodspeed, E. J., an educator, 331
Grant, Gen. U. S., report on South of, 267
Gray, Edward William, the purchase of Sylvia by, 27
Great Britain, agreement of, with respect to fugitives, 21
Green, John T., a candidate, 466–467
Greenback party, its effect in South Carolina, 549
Greenville and Columbia Railroad, 423
Greenwood, school at, 335
Gregory, W. F., a social worker, 127
Grier, Herlene M., winner of Folklore prize 375
Grimke, Archibald H., a leader, 108, 112
Gruening, Martha, an investigator of riots, 113
Guinea, trade on the coast of, 1–17
Guises, the family of, 4

H

Hakluyt, Richard, account of, 8
Hakluyt Society, publications of, 8
Hall McBurney, a social worker, 130
Halloway, J. H., a teacher, 338
Hamburg riot, 491–494
Hampton, Wade, attitude of, toward reconstruction, 382, 442; nomination of, for governor, 495; promises of, 498; contestant in the election of 1876, 508–517; final success of, 516–517
Hardie, Joseph, interest of, in social uplift, 131, 132, 133

Harper, Aaron, an advocate of reform, 452
Harrow, Alexander, and his slaves, 28–33; diary of, 29–33
Haskell, A. C., 495, 498
Hatch, John P., precaution of, 268
Hawkins, John, and the slave trade, 1–17
Hayne, C. D., efforts of, to secure land for the poor, 390; testimony of, 533
Hayne, H. E., a teacher, 338; ideas of, on education, 391; on poll tax, 393; Secretary of State, 462
Hayne, I. W., opposition of, to South Carolina Constitution of 1868, 405
Hayne, N., a candidate, 463
Haynes, George E., founder of the Urban League, 117–119, 122; address of, 378
Health of Negroes in South Carolina, 252–255
Helplessness of native whites in South Carolina, 272–273
Henry VII, exploration interest of, 3–4
Henry VIII, interest of, in trade, 6
Herskovits, Melville J., address of, 377
Hicks, Miss, a teacher, 337
High School education in South Carolina, 343–344
Hill, T. Arnold, a social worker, 120, 125
Hilles, Charles D., 121
Hispaniola, 3
Historians of the Reconstruction, biased, 241–244
Holbrooke, Lieut., 38
Hooper, C. W., 130
Hostile elements in South Carolina, 259–263, 280–294
How I hid a Union Spy, by Hannibal Armstrong, 34–40
Howard, Charles H., 127–128
Howard School in Columbia, 330–331
Howard University, Y. M. C. A. work at, 129
Howells, William Dean, 110
Hubert, James H., a social worker, 120
Huguenots driven to seafaring, 4
Humbert, J. L., charged with corruption, 478
Humphrey, Andrew B., Secretary of the Constitution League, 108
Hunton, Addie W., a worker for the rights of Negroes, 115, 116
Hunton, William A., an early social worker, 134, 135, 136, 137
Hurst, Bishop John, at annual meeting, 104–105; the donation of, 580–581

I

Indictment of reconstructionists, 540; political aspect of, 540–542
Imes, William L., interest of, in study of the Negro, 375
Immigration of whites into South Carolina urged, 260; of Chinese, 260
Industrial interests provided for, 422–423
Industries in South Carolina, 317–318
Ingersoll, E. D., a social worker, 134
Internal improvements, 423
Intimidation justified by exposure of corruption, 517–546
Investigation of frauds in South Carolina, 520–546
Irby, leader of poor whites in South Carolina, 554
Irving, S. Emelius, a planter, 389

J

Jackson, Adam, an advocate of reform, 452
Jackson, A. L., connection of, with the Urban League, 124–125
Jackson, L. P., Elizabethan Seamen and the Slave Trade by, 1–17
Jackson, W. C., joint author, An Anthology of Verse by American Negroes, review of, 371–374
Jamaica, 3
Jamison, comment on, 411
Jefferson Davis, review of, 237–238

Jefferson Davis, President of the South, review of, 367–369
Jefferson, Thomas, antislavery attitude of, 21, 22; Ordinance of 1784 of, 21
Jewelry fraud, 525
Jillson, Justus K., State Suuperintendent of Schools, 339, 340
John II, 2
Johnson, Charles S., editor and investigator, 124; address of, 377–378
Johnson, James H. A., a minister, 354
Johnson, James Weldon, Secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, 113, 116
Johnson, Kathryn M., a worker for the rights of Negroes, 113, 115
Johnson, William E., a minister, 354
Johnston, George D., a social worker, 132–133
Johnston, Sir Harry, an authority on Africa, 10
Jones, A. O., statement of, 528
Jones, Edmund Walter, "Book of Allowances" of, 140–142
Jones, Eugene Kinckle, Executive Secretary of the Urban League, 119; letter of, 232–233
Jones, Marshall, a legislator, 552
Jones, Robert E., interest of, in social work of Y. M. C. A., 137
Jones, Scipio A., interest of, in the rights of the Negro, 114
Jones, W. H., comment on, 411

K

Kellor, Francis A., 117
Kerlin, R. T., Negro Poets and Their Poems by, reviewed, 90–91; address of, 378
Kimpton, H. H., connection of, with frauds in South Carolina, 532–533, 535, 536
King, Edward, opinions of, 297, 298, 363
King, Rufus, antislavery attitude of, 21
King, W. J., at annual meeting, 102
King of Portugal, Lord of Guinea, 2
Kirk, Rollin H., 535
Kitty, the wife of Captain Alexander Harrow, 28
Knapp, Charles M., New Jersey during the Period of the Civil War and Reconstruction by, reviewed, 369–370
Knoxville, Union army in, 34–35
Ku Klux Klan, deeds of, 444–445, 447, 454, 455–456, 457; investigation of, 457–459

L

Labor condition in South Carolina just after the Civil War, 263, 264, 265–279, 294–310
Land Commission in South Carolina, 420–421; corruption in connection with, 448
Lands of Sea Islands, apportioned, 294–295
Langdon, William Chauncy, an early social worker, 127
Langley, L. S., opinion of, on "Negro Bonds," 387, 388; on suffrage, 398; on public debt, 399
Lark, Samuel, an advocate of reform, 464
Las Casas, Bishop, recommendaion of, 3
Latham, Henry, opinion of, 252
Leaphart, S. L., 495
Lee, Barnard K., Jr., a teacher, 323
Lee, George, ideas of, as to State aid to enterprise, 400
Lee, J. R. E., a social worker, 125
Lee, Samuel J., testimony of, 535
Legislation of reconstructionists in South Carolina, 409–411
Leslie, C. P., land commissioner, 421; frauds of, 480, 526
Lewis, L. O., address of, 102–103
Lewis, T. Willard, an educator, 333, 352
Lipscomb, J. N., 495
"Little Bonanza," 433–434
Living conditions in South Carolina,

247–249, 314–315
Locke, Alain, address of, 379
Lomax, T. H., a minister, 335
Lomax, opposition of, to Sinking Fund, 430; to corruption, 450
Loomis, Samuel, a minister, 349
Longstreet, General, 36
Lord of Guinea, 2
Loundes, an early social worker, 129
Lovelace, C. W., interest of, in social uplift, 131, 132, 133
Lowe, Charles, quotation from, 266–267
Loyal Leagues, 446
Lynch, Miss, a teacher, 337
Lynching, the attack on, 112–113, 114

M

McBurney, Robert, interest of, in social uplift, 132
McCutcheon, Victor H., 120
Mackey, E. W. M., efforts of, with respect to land distribution, 390; a congressman, 550
Mackey, Judge T. J., report of, on disorders in South Carolina, 485; fraud charged to, 537
Malone, Mrs. A. E., business career of, 94–95
Manufacturing in South Carolina, 317
Mansfield, Lord, decision of, 19
Marlboro, Negroes killed at, 499
Marshall, W. E., an advocate of reform, 452
Martin, James, the murder of, 445
Massachusetts, fugitive servant regulations in, 19
Mather Academy, origin of, 334
Mather Industrial School, 325
Mather, of Boston, 334
Mather, Rachel Crane, organization of a school by, 325
Matthias, Hampton, an educator, 336
Martial law desired by Negroes in South Carolina, 447–448
Maryland, fugitive slave reward offered by, 20
Maxson, Robert, an advocate of reform, 452
Mears, George M., a legislator, 552
Meine Erinnerungen aus Ostafrika, review of, 365–367
Methodist among the freedmen of South Carolina, 351–352
Migration of Negroes from South Carolina, 245, 278
Milholland, John E., interest of the rights of Negroes, 108; head of the Constitution League, 108, 111
Militia in South Carolina, 445–446
Miller, Hon. Thomas E., interest of, expressed at Spring Conference, 375, 378; comment on, 551; election of, to Congress, 552; election of, to legislature, 555; in constitutional Convention of 1895, 558–563
Miller, Kelly, The Everlasting Stain by, reviewed, 573–574
Missionary Record, influence of, 467
Mississippi, the migration of Negroes to, 278
Mistakes of reconstruction due in a measure to native whites, 566
Mitchell, Dr., interest of, in slaves in Canada, 29–30
Mobley, Junius S., 308, 411, 412
Moise, E. W., 495
Moore, Fred. R., 118
Moore, Garry W., a social worker, 120
Moorland, Jesse E., The Young Men's Christian Association among Negroes by, 127–138; an early worker in the cause, 135–138
Morals of Negroes, 360–364
Morehouse College, meeting at, 102–104
Morris, J. W., an educator, 332; fraud connections of, 526
Morris Street School of Charleston, 326, 327
Morriss Brown University, address of Director at, 104
Morse, Richard C., 128–129
Moses, F. J., a reconstruction officeholder, 409–410
Moses, F. J., Jr., election of, 462, 463, 464; corruption of, 464; election of, as circuit judge, 484, 489–491; charge of fraud to, 527, 531, 533, 535, 537

Moskovoitz, Dr. Henry, 109
Moton, R. R., 121; interest of, in Y. M. C. A., 137
Mount Pleasant and Laing Industrial School, 334
Movement of Negroes from South Carolina, 245, 267, 268, 276–279
Mowbray, Paul F., 120
Munro, Abbey D., an educator, 334
Murder Bill, of South Carolina, 446
Murfreesboro, the battle of, 34
Murray, Ellen, a teacher, 323
Murray, Geo. W., election of, to Congress, 555

N

Nash, Henry, the murder of, 447
Nash, W. B., effort of, to defeat speculation in land, 390; comment of, on suffrage, 398–399; testimony of, 533
Nash, Roy, a worker for the rights of Negroes, 113
National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, The, 107–116
National League on Urban Conditions among Negroes, establishment of, 118
National scandals, 544–546
Neagle, J. L., remarks of, on public debt, 400
Negroes sold as house servants, 2; in the Spanish settlement of Mose, Florida, 144–195; provided for popular education in South Carolina, 338–345; as officeholders in action, 415–418; opposed to white corruptionists, 449–450; opposition of, in South Carolina intimidated and despondent, 547–569; not so ignorant as reported, 566; willing to work, 569
Negro from Africa to America, The, review of, 574–577
Negro in South Carolina during the Reconstruction, The, by A. A. Taylor, 241–364, 381–569
Negro owners of slaves in the United States in 1830, 41–85; Negro population of South Carolina, 245–258; students and teachers in the University of South Carolina, 343–344; officeholders, capability of, 409 et seq.; as reconstruction leaders in South Carolina, 409–441; elected as Democrats to the legislature of South Carolina, 550; case of, presented in the South Carolina convention of 1895, 558–563; reply to the same, by B. R. Tillman, 561–563; disfranchised, 558–563; labor of, disrupted but not inefficient, 564–565
Negro Poets and Their Poems, review of, 90–91
Nerney, Mary Childs, a worker for the rights of Negroes, 113
New England Freedmen's Aid Society, 324
New England, fugitive servant regulations of, 18–20
New Haven, regulations of servants in, 19
New Jersey during the Period of the Civil War and Reconstruction, review of, 369–370
New World, trade in, 1–17
New York, fugitive slave regulations of, 19; the antislavery sentiment of, 20; gradual emancipation of, 20
Nicholson, Alfred W., an educator, 336
Norwood, John Nelson, The Schism in the Methodist Church, 1844 by, reviewed, 234–235

O

"Opportunity," the establishment of, 124
Opposing governments in South Carolina as the result of the election contest, 508–517
Opposition to the Constitution of South Carolina of 1868, 404–407; to reconstruction, 442–468
Orangeburg Female College, origin of, 333

Orr, James L., statement of, 296; address of, to the Convention of 1868, 384–385; approval of, of the South Carolina Constitution of 1868, 407–408; sympathy of, for the reconstructionists, 442; supporter of Republican ticket in South Carolina in 1870, 452
Overissue of bonds, 469
Overthrow of the reconstructionists, 489–517; 568–569
Ovington, Mary White, The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People by, 107–116; efforts of, against social proscription of the Negro, 108
Owen, Sara, a teacher, 325
Ownership of slaves, absentee, 196–231

P

Panet, Pierre, a "Sindic," 27
Parker, Niles G., ideas of, as to public debt, 399, 400; conviction of, 431, 469, 480–481; frauds of, 531, 534, 537
Patterson, John J., bribery of, 533
"Pay certificates" fraud, 523, 528–529
Peck, Solomon, a teacher, 323
Penal institutions fraud, 539–540
Penn School, 323
Pennsylvania, Abolition Society of, 20; slavery abolished in, 20
Perkins, George W., 121
Perrin, Wade, the murder of, 447
Perry, Benjamin F., attitude of, toward the new order, 280–281; opposition of, to the constitution of 1868, 404–405; opposition of, to reconstruction, 442, 445
Perry, B. F., early attitude of, toward reconstruction, 382
Perry, Heman E., business career of, 96–97
Perry, James, a merchant, 26
Persons of color, code for, in South Carolina, 280–294
Petty, Calvin, a minister, 335
Philadelphia, the Urban League in, 122
Philip II and the Inquisition, 5; interest of, in trade, 7, 12
Phosphate industry, 318; corruption in connection with, 422, 448
Pickens, William, a worker for the rights of Negroes, 115, 116; Bursting Bonds by, reviewed, 236–237
Piedmont district of South Carolina, the Negroes in, 304–305
Pierce, Edward L., 322
Pierce, D. M., a minister, 358
Pike, James S., quotation from, 310; comment of, on Negro legislators, 413
Pillsbury, Albert E., 111
Pillsbury, Gordon, ideas of, about land, 390
Pine Belt of South Carolina, the Negroes in, 300
Pittsburgh, the Urban League in, 122
Plymouth Church, Charleston, 347–348
Plymouth, fugitive servant regulations in, 19
Political aspect of indictment of reconstructionists, 540–542
Political murders, 454–455
Poll tax not collected in South Carolina, 420
Pope, division of the exploited territory by, 3
Population, Negro, of South Carolina, 245–258
Port Royal Commission, organization of, 322–323
Port Royal, Schools of, 323–327, 337
Porter, A. Toomer, a minister, 350
Porter, H. W., welcome of, 375
Porter W. D., opposition of, to South Carolina Constitution of 1868, 405, head of the Taxpayers Convention, 459–460
Powell, Volney, the murder of, 447
Presbyterians among Negroes in South Carolina, 348–350
Preston, John S., opposition of, to Constitution of 1868, 404–405
Prigg v. Pennsylvania, 23–25

Prince Henry, of Portugal, 2
Proceedings of the Annual Meeting of the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History, 101–106
Proceedings of the Spring Conference of the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History, 375–380
Progress, economic, of South Carolina, 310–321
Progress of Negroes in South Carolina, 307–309
Protestants driven to seafaring, 4
Public morals generally low, 545
Public printing fraud, 525–526
Puerto Rico, 3
Purvis, H. W., adjutant and inspector general, 462

Q

Qualifications of Negro office-holders in South Carolina, 409–441
Quincy, Josiah, attorney for a fugitive, 23
Quiroga, Governor Don Diego, letter of, with respect to Negro fugitives to Florida, 150–166

R

Raiford, G. W., a minister, 358
Rainey, Joseph H., some ideas of, with respect to land, 389–390; on poll tax, 393; an advocate of reform, 467; opposition of, to the Sinking Fund, 430; a member of Congress, 414
Railroad frauds, 529–530
Raleigh, interest of, in settlements, 15
Randolph, B. F., ideas of, as to relief, 388; on land, 390; on education, 391; on public debt, 399, 400; murder of, 445
Ransier, A. J., remarks of, on land, 390; on education, 391, 392; on suffrage, 396; on public debt, 399; a member of Congress, 414; corruption denounced by, 464, 465
Ransom, F. B., interest of, in social work, 137
Reconstruction, studies of, biased, 241–244; plan of Congress for, 291–294; opposed, 442–468; the aftermath of, 546–569
Reconstructionists and their measures in South Carolina, 409–441; conviction of some of them, 541–542; overthrow of, 489–517
Redfield, H. V., report of, on the campaign of 1876 in South Carolina, 501
Red Hills, the Negroes among, 303–304
Redpath, James, an educator, 326
Reed, I. R., a delegate to the South Carolina Constitutional Convention of 1895, 558–563
Reform in South Carolina, 469–488
"Refreshments" fraud, 523–524
Reid, Whitelaw, report on the South of, 270–271
Religious influence in South Carolina, 346–364
Repeal of reconstruction measures, 519–520
Research, Department of, of the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History, studies of, 41–43, 582–586
"Revenue Bond Scrip," 426
Revitalized slavery curbed, 280–294
Reynolds, J. T., comment on, 551
Rhode Island, fugitive slave regulations in, 18
Rice, John C., comment on, 551
Richardson, Mark P., a legislator, 553
Richardson, Willard, a teacher, 335
Richmond, A. C., on public debt, 400
Riddell, Mr. Justice William Renwick, Further Notes on Slavery in Canada by, 26–33
Riley, Stephney, an advocate of reform, 452
Rise of the poor whites, 533–554
Rivers, Prince, testimony of, 535
Roberts, B. L., a candidate, 463
Roberts, Dr. E. P., 118, 120
Robertson, T. J., ideas of, as to homesteads, 118, 120; United States Senator, 409

Robertson, J. Douglass, corruption of, 480, 484
Robinson, James H., a social worker, 120
Robinson, Stewart, interest of, in social uplift, 132
Rockefeller, John D., Jr., 119
Roosevelt, Theodore, 121
Rose, George, opinion of, 364
Rosenwald, Julius, aid of, to Negroes, 119–120; interest of, in the Y. M. C. A., 136, 137
Rowland, Dunbar, Jefferson Davis by, reviewed, 237–238
Rutherford, S. W., the business career of, 97–100

S

Sachs, Paul J., 120
St. George Plantation, in South Carolina, flight of Negroes from, to the Spanish settlement, 144 et seq.
St. Helena Folklore Society, award of prize to, 375–376
St. Helena Island, school on, 323
St. Louis, the Urban League in, 122
Salter, Moses B., a minister, 354
Santo Domingo, population of, reduced, 2–3
Sasportas, T. K., ideas of, 388
Saunders, William, opinion of, 364
Savannah and Charleston Railroad, 424
Sawyer, E. J., a teacher, 338
Saxton, General, cooperation of, 324
Scandals, national, 544–546
Schieffelin, William J., 117, 118
Schism in the Methodist Church, 1844, The, review of, 234–235
Schofield, Martha, an educator, 335
Schofield Normal and Industrial School, establishment of, 334–335
Schools of South Carolina, statistics of early, 344–345
Schurz, Carl, report on the South of, 269–270
Scott, R. K., Assistant Commissioner of Freedmen's Bureau, 389; veto of, 424; corruption of, 448–449; proceedings against, 469; frauds of, 525, 526, 531, 534
Sea Islands, condition of Negroes on, 279, 294, 299, 361; schools of, 325
Seligman, E. R. A., 119
Seligman, Herbert J., a worker for the rights of Negroes, 114
Share system popular, 276–279, 299–310
Shaw Memorial Institute, 328–329
Sherman, W. T., 322
Shillady, John R., Secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, 115; the attack on, 116
Shrewsbury, Henry, education of, 338; comment on, 411
Sidelights on Negro Soldiers, review of, 235–236
Sierra Leone and the slave trade, 6, 7, 8, 9
Simpson, Tabby, the murder of, 445
Simpson, W. D., 495
Sims, R. M., 495
Sinclair, William A., a progressive worker, 108
Singleton, Andrew, a legislator, 553
Sinking Fund measure of South Carolina, 430, 535–536
Slave, condition of, improved by the American Revolution, 20
Slavery and Its Results by Alfred H. Benners, reviewed, 92–93
Slavery revitalized, 280–294
Slaves, absentee ownership of, 196–231
Slave trade, African, 1–17
Smalls, Robert, elected to Congress, 549, 550; Collector of the port at Beaufort, 557; in Constitutional Convention of 1895, 558–563
Smith, R. M., testimony of, 533
Sneed, W., an advocate of reform, 452
Social privileges of Negroes in South Carolina, 249–252
Solomon, Hardy, oppositions of, 473; fraud of, 534

Somers, Robert, quotation from, 254, 255, 296, 311
South Carolina Bank and Trust Company, 473, 534
South Carolina, proslavery attitude of, 21–22; Negro population of, 245–258; progressive in spite of complaints to the contrary, 564, 566
South, sentiment of, 21–22
Spain, connection of, with slave trade, 5, 6, 7, 8
Spanish, the, and fugitive slaves, 19–20
Sparke, narrator of Sir John Hawkins, 10, 16
Spartanburg and Union Railroad, 426
Spingarn, A. B., interest of, in the rights of the Negro, 112, 114
Spingarn, J. E., interest of, in the rights of the Negro, 112
Spring Conference of the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History, Proceedings of, 375–380
Springfield riots, 109
State Board of Agriculture of South Carolina, report of, 298–306
State College of Agriculture and Mechanics Institute, origin of, 333–334
State institutions fraud, 539–540
State Orphan Asylum, 539
State Police in South Carolina, 445–446
State University of South Carolina, Negro students and teachers of, 343–344
Statistics, population of South Carolina, 246–247, 256–258, 311–321
Sterling Funded Debt scheme, 431
Stevens, Mat, the killing of, 454
Stevens, Thaddeus, advice of, to Negroes, 382
Steward, T. G., a minister in South Carolina, 353–354; the death of, 240
Stewart, Gilchrist, investigation by, 108
Stimulating efforts of the Director, 580–582
Stockton, Herbert K., interest of, in the rights of the Negro, 114
Storey, Moorfield, interest of, in the Negro, 110, 112, 114
Straker, D. A., a teacher of law, 332; employment of, as a Federal official, 557
Strother, David, an advocate of reform, 464
Summary of reconstruction in South Carolina, 563–569
Sumner, Charles, advice of, to Negroes, 382
Swails, opposition of, to Sinking Fund, 430; reform efforts of, 450
Sylvia, a slave woman sold in Canada, 26–27

T

Talbert, Mary, a worker for the rights of Negroes, 115
Taylor, A. A., address of, 376; The Negro in South Carolina during the Reconstruction by, 241–364, 381–569
Taylor, Joseph, 308
Taylor, R. H., Feeding Slaves by, 139–143
Taylor, William, 308
Taxation in various States, 437–439
Tax levy in South Carolina, 435–436
Taxpayers Convention, 459–461, 464, 465, 483
Texas, the migraion of Negroes to, 278
Thomas, Henry W., an early social worker in Charleston, South Carolina, 128–129
Thomas, Jesse O., an employe of the Urban League, 125
Thomas, J. P., opposition of, to Constitution of 1868, 405
Thomas, William M., a minister, 354
Thompson, Hugh S., State Superintendent of Schools, 341, 495
Tillman, Ben, leader of the poor

whites, 553–569; radical measure of, 558–563
Tillman, George D., contest of, 549
Tomlinson, R. B., candidacy of, for governor of South Carolina, 463; opinion of, 338
Towne, Laura M., a teacher, 323
Towns, George A., at annual meeting, 101
Trotman, William F., interest of, in social work of Y. M. C. A., 137
Trotter, William Monroe, an editor, 108
Tweed Ring, 545

U

Underground Railroad, stimulus given to, 25
Union Leagues, 446
Unitarians among the Negroes of South Carolina, 350
Upper Pine Belt of South Carolina, the Negroes in, 301–303
Urban League, The, 117–126

V

Validating Act, 532
Van Vlec, Garret, of Venderhook, 27
Vermont, slavery abolished in, 20
Villard, Oswald Garrison, 109, 111
Vom Kulturreich des Festlandes, review of, 570–571
Von Lettow-Vorbeck, General, Meine Erinnerungen aus Ostafrika by, reviewed, 365–367

W

Wage system unpopular, 275, 279, 299–310, 312–314, 317
Wagener, General, elected mayor of Charleston with aid of Negroes, 462–463
Wallace, Samuel B., a minister, 356
Wallace, Thomas H., a legislator, 553
Wallingford Academy, 329
Walling, William English, 109
Walters, Bishop Alexander, 111
Walton, Elizabeth, 120
Washington, Booker T., 121
Washington, Forrester B., a social worker, 120
Washington, J. J., election of, 551
Waters, J. C., an educator, 332
Wealth of South Carolina, 315
Weatherford, W. D., book of, on the Negro, 136; The Negro from Africa to America by, reviewed, 574–577
Webster, A., an educator, 333
Webster, Edgar H., at annual meeting, 102
Weidensall, a social worker, 129
Wesley, Charles H., address of, 376–377
West Africa, the Negroes of, 10–11
West India Company and the fugitive slaves, 18
West Indies and the slave trade, 1–17
Wheeler, Robert F., 132
Whipper, W. J., ideas of, as to suffrage, 397–398; election of, as circuit judge, 484, 489–491; probate judge, 550; in Constitutional Convention of 1895, 558–563
Whiskey Ring, 544–545
White, Alfred T., 119–120
White, I. W., joint author, An Anthology of Verse by American Negroes, review of, 371–374
White, Walter F., a worker for the rights of Negroes, 113, 116
Whittemore, B. F., opposition of, to Chamberlain's reforms, 486–487; fraud charge of, 527
Wigg, James, a legislator, 553; in Constitutional Convention of 1895, 561
Wiggins, election of, as circuit judge, 489
Wilberforce University, 350
Wilcox, William G., 120
Wilder, C. M., postmaster at Columbia, opinions of, 410, 557; comment on, 410
Williams, B. H., a State Senator, 551
Williams, Charles H., Sidelights on Negro Soldiers by, reviewed, 235–236

Williams, George W., of London, gift of, 132
Wilson, Butler R., 112
Winnsboro, Negro school at, 335
Winnsmith, John, a candidate, 466
Women's American Bapist Home Mission Society, 325
Woodland, Judge, opinion of, 410–411
Wood, L. Hollingworth, work of, in connection with Urban League and other movements, 232, 233; The Urban League by, 116–126; address of, 379–380
Woodruff, Josephus, testimony of, 523, 526
Woodson, C. G., address of, 103–104; at Clark University, 106; at Tuskegee, 106; review of book by, 374–377; annual report of, 579–586
Wright, Irene A., Despatches of Spanish Officials bearing on the Free Negro Settlement of Gracia Real de Santa Teresa de Mose by, 144–195
Wright, J. J., ideas of, 386, 387; on coeducation of the races, 393–394; on suffrage, 397, 398; on public debt, 400; fraud charged to, 537–538
Wright, R. R., interest of, in Spring Conference, 375
Wright, T. G., a teacher in Columbia, South Carolina, 330

Y

Young Men's Christian Association among Negroes, The, 127–138
Yelverton Thérèse, opinion of, as to Negro morals, 363
Yergen, Max, work of, 138